Navajo Nation President Signs Off for Red Bull Air Race

Window Rock, AZ – Monday morning May 30 at 10 a.m., the Navajo Nation President Joe Shirley Jr. officially made it his direct wish that the much talked about Red Bull Air Race Event will commence as scheduled on May 12th at the Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park.

The International Red Bull Air Race has been in much speculation as to whether it should take place or not. Since its first inquiry to the Navajo Parks and Recreation Department (NPRD) back in October 2006 both the pros and cons have been weighed by all sides of the Navajo departmental spectrum. After scouting Monument Valley, Red Bull's official request to hold their international air race at Monument Valley was submitted to NPRD in January of this year. What it has initially come down to is the President's approval, with his signature now on the Red Bull Host Agreement presented this past Monday the event can proceed as scheduled.

The Red Bull International Air Race, with the cooperation from the Navajo Nation Presidents Office, is in full effect and coming to Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park May 17th, for more information about the event and ticket prices, visit their website at www.redbullairrace.com.
